

Getting to know...

- Do you have any friends? How many?
- When do you hang out with them? Where?
- Who are your best friends?
- Why do you call them your “best friends”?

Believe	Partner	Fall in love
Get married	On the other hand	Leave
Couple	Get used to	Should

Get to know someone!

Some people believe, before getting married, you need to know your partner very well and it is better to be friends for a couple of months, on the other hand, many people think when you are friends, you get used to them and fall in love, so it is very difficult to leave that person.

Hadi Fathi

- How should we know the person that we want to get married?
- How can we know this person is thinking about getting married?
- Should families know about the person? Why?

Parent	Get along	Each other
Soul mate	Let	Continue
Break up	someone	Hurt sb's feelings

- As a parent do you let your children have boyfriends or girlfriends? why?
- What are the good points and bad points of having boyfriends and girlfriends?
- What's the best way to find our soul mate? Why?
- What's the best way to break up with someone that you can't get along?

Role play!

After being friends for almost two years Peter decided to break up with Julie. It is too difficult they loved each other but they couldn't continue. You tell us how to break up, not to hurt your partner's feelings.

Fun English!

1. A battle of nerves!
2. Be tight-lipped!
3. Be between the devil and the blue sky!