

Mustafa Bicher: One of a kind! How simply amazing!

Karyan Kim: Some choose to see the misery some choose to see the beauty. Avid Sue Austin illustrates a picture which gives everybody goosebumps.

Azoo 25: It is all up to you, a wheelchair or a “power chair” for some that makes an astonishing difference.

Irina Shemesh: Incredible! Fantastic! I'm shocked by your courage and ingenuity ... thanks!

David Valkom: I still cannot believe! Was it not hallucination or something?

Particha Sanders: It was such a cathartic experience for me! She literally has shaken me to my core! Thanks a million!

Rasool Namd: I am kind of ambivalent about her, I hate her because she shows all we think as “impossible” is possible. We just need to shift our perspective! And I love her because of her aspirations and inspirations!

When sue because of an illness had to use a wheelchair, she thought that there is nothing in the world that can make her happy. However, she tried really hard to redefine herself and become a typical person. But people around her seemed that couldn't see her anymore and she was simply invisible. When Sue Austin got a power wheelchair, she felt a tremendous sense of freedom – yet others looked at her as though she had lost something. In her art, she conveys the spirit of wonder she feels wheeling through the world. Includes thrilling footage of an underwater wheelchair that lets her explore ocean beds, drifting through schools of fish, floating free in 360 degrees.

But truly why?

What enables some people to go beyond their limitations?

If she can experience such far-fetched experiences, what are waiting for?

Are we really capable of doing whatever we desire?

Hallucination an experience in which you see, hear, feel, or smell something that does not exist, usually because you are ill or have taken a drug	far-fetched very unlikely to be true, and difficult to believe	Enable to make someone able to do something, or to make something possible
--	--	--

Floating not fixed in one position, place, or level	A school of fish A group of fish	Aspirations something that you hope to achieve
One of a kind	goosebumps small raised areas that appear on the skin because of cold, fear, or excitement	misery great unhappiness
Ambivalent having two opposing feelings at the same time, or being uncertain about how you feel	cathartic experience involving the release of strong emotions through a particular activity or experience	literally using the real or original meaning of a word or phrase
inspirations someone or something that gives you ideas for doing something	ingenuity someone's ability to think of clever new ways of doing something	illustrates to draw pictures for a book, magazine
Capable able to do things effectively and skilfully, and to achieve results	Thrilling extremely exciting	footage (a piece of) film especially ones showing an event
Negotiate to have formal discussions with someone in order to reach an agreement with them	Transform to change completely the appearance or character of something or someone	Preconception an idea or opinion formed before enough information is available to form it correctly
Identity who a person is, or the qualities of a person or group that make them different from others	Paradigm a model of something, or a very clear and typical example of something	Shift to (cause something or someone to) move or change from one position or direction to another, especially slightly
Narrative a story or a description of a series of events	Limitation the act of controlling and especially reducing something	Interpret to decide what the intended meaning of something is
Internalize to accept or absorb an idea, opinion, belief, etc. so that it becomes part of your character	Alienate to cause someone or a group of people to stop supporting and agreeing with you	Perspective a particular way of considering something

Journey the act of travelling from one place to another, especially in a vehicle	Tremendous very great in amount or level, or extremely good	Restricted limited, especially by official rules, laws, etc
Enormous extremely large	Whiz to move very fast	Exhilarating making you feel very excited and happy
Invisible impossible to see	Descend If darkness or night descends, it becomes dark and day changes to night	Assumption something that you accept as true without question or proof
Association the fact of being involved with or connected to someone or something	Joy great happiness or pleasure	Ecstatic extremely happy
Light up to look happy	Spectacle an unusual or unexpected event or situation that attracts attention, interest, or disapproval	Scuba diving the sport of swimming underwater with special breathing equipment
Convey to express a thought, feeling, or idea so that it is understood by other people	As though like	